FINDINGS AND DECISION

This medical fee dispute is decided pursuant to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and all applicable, adopted rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation.

Background

1. 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.307 sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.
2. 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.204 sets out the reimbursement guidelines for case management services.
3. The services in dispute were reduced/denied by the respondent with the following reason codes:
 - 744 – Does not meet the definition of case management per DWC rule 134.202 and/or 134.204
 - 193 – Original payment decision is being maintained.

Issues

1. Did the requestor submit required documentation as required by rule 134.204?
2. Is the requestor entitled to reimbursement?

Findings

1. The carrier denied the disputed services as, 744 – “Does not meet the definition of case management per DWC rule 134.202 and/or 134.204.” 28 Texas Labor Code §134.204(e)(4) states in pertinent part, “Case management services require the treating doctor to submit documentation that identifies any HCP that contributes to the case management activity.” Review of the submitted documentation finds the following;
 - a. Case management note dated 3-15-2012 states, “General Purpose: Care Coordination” “Specific Purpose: Developing Treatment Plan, Coordinating return to work” “Outcome: mental health testing approval for pre-surgical screening”Review of the submitted documentation finds nothing to support the treating physician participated in the case management service. The carrier’s denial is supported.
2. The Division finds requirements of Rule 134(e)(4) not met. Therefore, no additional payment can be recommended.

Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, the Division finds that the requestor has not established that additional reimbursement is due. As a result, the amount ordered is $0.00.

ORDER

Based upon the documentation submitted by the parties and in accordance with the provisions of Texas Labor Code §413.031, the Division has determined that the requestor is entitled to $0.00 reimbursement for the disputed services.
